

Jun 3 for Jun 7

Bingo Tonight: at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. Cash prizes, raffle and licensed bar. All proceeds to Moggerhanger Village Hall charity. For further information contact Betty 01767 640734, Jackie 01767 640790 or Carolyn 01767 640727. Please note this event is open to all, you don't have to be a Moggerhanger resident to join in.

Tomorrow: There are still tickets left for a cocktail evening in the village hall. We will have a selection of cocktails available along with the usual bar, a raffle, a guess the cocktail competition and canapés. So if you fancy a muddled mojito, a mixed margarita or a concocted cosmopolitan come and join in the fun.

Tickets available at £5 from Carolyn, 01767 640727.

Social Evenings: Although the folk evenings are proving very successful it is not everyone's cup of tea. Some folk would like to be able to just sit and chat. With that in mind we will be opening the bar in the Village Hall on Tuesday, June 11, and the second Tuesday of each month thereafter, from 7pm.

Safari Supper: This annual event in support of the Friend's of St John's Church is to be held on Saturday, June 29. The evening commences with pre dinner drinks at 7 Blunham Road, weather permitting, at 6.30pm. There you will receive information of your mystery host for your starter, who will also provide you details of your main course host. Finally it's back to the Church for dessert, coffee and liqueurs. Tickets are still available at £14 from Dorothy 01767 640242 or Pat 01767 640848. If you would like to be a host for this event or are able to make a dessert then Dorothy and Pat would love to hear from you.

Sing Up Loud: Thursday evenings at 8pm in the Village Hall. This is a choir run by Choirmaster Leigh Smith and will cover many interests from Classic, Pop and Show music. Call Chris on 01767 640242 for more information

Moggerhanger Park: Friday June 28, in the Garden Room at Moggerhanger Park there will be a gardening quiz night. Moggerhanger Park is organizing a gardening quiz night in collaboration with Plant Heritage. Everybody is welcome. The doors will open at 7pm and the quiz will begin at 7.15pm. The questions will be related to gardening matters, but will have a broad basis of general knowledge, so should appeal to everyone. The tables will be arranged to seat 6 people so group of friends can sit together. Please let us know when you book. Tickets will cost £10 per person and will include a bottle of wine for each table and nibbles. Bar and Food available to purchase on the evening. To book, contact pilardell@gmail.com or call 07719547148. All profits go to Moggerhanger House Preservation Trust for funding new planting in the gardens

Emm Gee 60: Mrs Rawlins presided at the annual meeting of the club, held on Wednesday last, and welcomed members, also thanking them for all their support over the past year.

The Hon. Secretary thanked Mrs Rawlins and Mr and Mrs Buck for their support to her over the year, and said she was sure all would like to send best wishes to Pauline who was ill.

Mrs Barrance said that the Club would be forty years old in December and asked members to think about how we could celebrate. It was hoped that new members would come forward and join before then.

Thanks were also expressed to Mr Bob Browning for auditing the accounts.

Elections took place as follows; Chairman, Mrs C Rawlins; Vice Chair, Mr A Buck; Hon Secretary, Mrs E Barrance.

Mrs Jo Davison was unanimously re-elected President and thanks were expressed to her for her support to the club and for the invitation each year in July to a garden party, which is always enjoyed by everyone.

Subscriptions remain the same at two pounds for the year.

After the meeting Mrs Rawlins was caller for prize bingo and tea was served.
