Knit and Natter: Another lively Knit & Natter session was held in St John's Church on October 24, ten people in all during the course of the morning. Carole has nearly finished her cushion cover, Dorothy sewed the buttons onto the baby cardigan, just in time as the baby (a great-nephew) had arrived safely the day before, Mary got started on some fingerless mittens and Eileen, Jane, Colin and Elizabeth continued with various projects. Coral looked after customers who came to use the Shop in the vestry and made us all a cup of coffee. Jane told us about a project in Moldova which would really welcome children's jumpers and warm clothing. A local resident is going out there in April and several people said they would make items for him to take. He has offered to take photographs of the children wearing the garments which would be good to see. The next meeting of the Knit & Natter Group will be on Tuesday November 26, at 10 am and all are welcome.

Coffee Morning: Held last Saturday, October 26, an Autumn Coffee Morning at Village Farm, 4 St Johns Road, by kind invitation of Miss Matthews.
