St John's Church:

On Sunday, February 2, Chere Hunter, the Spiritual Care Coordinator of St John's Sue Ryder Home, welcomed the congregation to a service of Remembrance and Thanksgiving for those who had passed away at the home over the past three months. Children assisted her to light the candle after the opening prayers.

After the reading and address given by Chere, members of staff and volunteers from St. John's read out the Roll of Remembrance. The song "To Where You Are" was performed by Ms Jean Lloyd.

After prayers and the blessing the childrens' pictures which they had crayoned during the service were attached to blue and white balloons and released in the churchyard.

There was a retiring collection in aid of funds for St. John's.

Volunteers served cake and refreshments after the service.

On Sunday February 9, the Rev Rachel Pennant presided at the monthly Family Service and Mr J. Brun gave a reading.

The children enacted a drama "Jesus in the desert for 40 days" and the Rev Rachel gave a talk on the various times 40 is mentioned in the Bible. They also sang songs during the service.

Mrs B George and Ms G Bird were sides-persons and also served refreshments after the service.
