Village Hall:

At the 100 club social evening in January it was suggested to us that another similar evening would be appreciated. These events are a great opportunity for folk to natter and catch up which is difficult to do when there is organised entertainment. It is also a great opportunity for the Trustees to update everyone on progress with projects and any plans moving forwards. It also allows you to ask any questions you might have regarding future plans at the hall.

Each year in accordance with our governance document we hold our annual meeting and thought we could combine these two events. This will take place on Saturday April 26, doors open 7pm. There will be a light buffet provided. During the social evening we plan to have a 30 minute break to enable us to complete our formal obligations. This will be a short report on our progress in 2013, an overview of our finances and the election of officers for 2014/15. For those that have a dread of annual meetings because they believe they might be 'volunteered' for something rest assured that's not how we work so just come to the event and enjoy an informative yet social evening.

We plan to have another mini auction to help continued funding for our car park. We have just received the draft contract from the Council so hope by this event we will be able to tell you that our land purchase has been successfully completed.

Karaoke

In March we had a very successful karaoke evening. Steve Wheatley got the evening off to a great start singing some old favourites, followed by some of our younger parishioners eager to entertain. A very varied evening with young folk and older, good singers, some not quite so good, some just very enthusiastic and finally those of us that hid behind the bar. All in all a great evening of fun with everyone joining in and many supporting and singing along. Everyone seemed keen to do it again so we will be having another go on Saturday May 10. Tickets will be £4 for adults but children under 16 or in full time education will be free. Come and join us for a relaxed fun evening. Tickets from Carolyn 01767 640727
