The Children's Society:

The collection taken at the Christingle Service held on Jan 11 amounted to £122.36. Added to this was £97.64 collected at the Lower School Christingle held in December to make a grand total of £220.00. This was forwarded to the Society by the village representative, Mrs Mary Wilson, who wishes to thank everyone who contributed in any way.

St John's Church:

The Rev Fiona Gibson led the songs of praise service held on Sunday last and opened with a welcome and prayers.

The service took the form of an interview with Ken Ebbage questioning the Rev Gillian Orpin about her earlier life in nursing, her missionary work and the road that led her to Moggerhanger. Gillian also chose the hymns for the service.

A reading was given by Jean-Pierre Brun and a duet, "El Shaddai", sung by Alison Cross and Ken Ebbage.

After the blessing the congregation stayed on for further fellowship and refreshments.

The next songs of praise will be held on Sunday, February 15 at 6pm with the theme "Love in all its aspects". All are welcome.

Church Services:

St John the Evangelist, 9am all age communion.
