A full capacity congregation was welcomed to the church on Sunday afternoon for a St Johns Hospice service of remembrance and thanksgiving.

Children assisted with the lighting of a candle and 144 loved ones were remembered.

Staff read out the names of those departed and a short reading was given after each group followed by music allowing a time of personal reflection.

A solo was sung by Jean Lloyd - "To Where You Are".

A reading from Isaiah was given and prayers were led by the Rev Fiona Gibson. Pictures crayoned by the children during the service were blessed and attached to blue and white balloons which were released in the churchyard after the blessing. There was a retiring collection in aid of the ongoing work at St Johns Hospice. All were invited to stay on after the service for refreshments. Bereavement volunteers were also present to help if wanted.
