

AMBITION

When I grow up, what shall I be?
Employment I must find.
A job I think, that suits me best.
I have several on my mind.

Sailor, Soldier, Tinker, Tailor,
An accountant, perhaps the law.
I can choose from so many,
As ideas of work come to the fore.

So I shall knuckle down, and learn from my lessons before it's too late.
Although, I have time in hand.
I am only eight.
